PREAMBLE

trans-o-flex Express GmbH & Co. KGaA, registered office Hertzstraße 10, 69469 Weinheim (hereinafter referred to as trans-o-flex) provides temperature-controlled and non-temperature-controlled transport services on behalf of the sender. In this context, trans-o-flex would like to enable the respective recipients of these transports to grant permission to store the goods at a storage location defined by the recipient within the national borders of the Federal Republic of Germany without a receipt line (hereinafter storage permit). It is not possible for recipients who have their place of residence or place of business outside of the Federal Republic of Germany to issue a storage permit.

That said, the sender issues the following

Consent

In accordance with the storage conditions on which the delivery permit is based, the storage of the goods at the agreed location by the driver counts as proper, complete and externally undamaged delivery to the recipient. trans-o-flex does not owe an acknowledgement of receipt by the recipient. The recipient is responsible for deciding whether the storage location is suitable for storing shipments in the relevant temperature range. trans-o-flex is not obliged to check the suitability of the storage location.

The sender hereby consents to the storage permit of all recipients of the transport services commissioned by him for all his barcode sender numbers ("BCV numbers"), both currently valid and in the future, and accordingly waives a receipted delivery receipt. The barcode sender number (BCV number) is part of the shipment data to be transmitted by the sender to trans-o-flex. The sender receives his BCV numbers from trans-o-flex at the start of the business relationship.

PLEASE NOTE: If you as the sender would only like to grant consent for individual BCV numbers, you can list them in the enclosed attachment. If no BCV numbers are listed in the attachment when the consent is returned or the attachment is not sent, the consent, as described, applies to all currently valid BCV numbers as well as those valid in the future. If you have only given consent for individual BCV numbers and, as a sender, expect to receive additional BCV numbers in the future, you must notify us of any additional BCV numbers for inclusion. Please notify us of this as follows: by post to trans-o-flex Express GmbH & Co. KGaA, Hertzstraße 10, 69469 Weinheim, or by email to alv@tof.de and please state the reference "Storage Permit".

Any agreements to the contrary, made in the past between trans-o-flex and the sender, as well as corresponding instructions to the contrary, given regarding delivery modalities, are hereby revoked.

This approval refers to all corresponding transport orders of the sender and can be revoked by the sender, non-retroactively, at any time. Revocation must be issued in text form. You can send said revocation by post to trans-o-flex Express GmbH & Co. KGaA, Hertzstraße 10, 69469 Weinheim or by email to alv@tof.de. In the event of revocation by the sender, trans-o-flex will discontinue all future storage services to the relevant recipients of the sender.
